William J. Zimmerman is a Senior Threat Manager with SIGMA Threat Management Associates. Prior to his retirement in October 2015, Detective Zimmerman was a 32-year veteran of the United States Capitol Police. He began his duties with the USCP Threat Assessment Section (TAS) in 1987 and retired as the Senior Investigator. While with the Threat Assessment Section, Detective Zimmerman was responsible for investigating threats against Members of the U.S. Congress, their families and other statutory protectees. Mr. Zimmerman regularly reviewed, evaluated and intervened with persons engaged in inappropriate contact with Members' offices in Washington, D.C. and throughout the United States.

Mr. Zimmerman has conducted training regarding interviewing, assessing and managing subjects who came to the attention of the Congressional Community for their inappropriate or threatening behavior. Mr. Zimmerman also regularly conducted Security Awareness Seminars for the Senate and House Staff at the US Capitol complex and across the United States.

Mr. Zimmerman has provided consultation and training to facilitate the development of numerous threat management sections or units throughout the United States and Great Britain.

Mr. Zimmerman was the first President of the Association of Threat Assessment Professionals (A.T.A.P.) Washington, D.C. Chapter (1994) and remains an active member of that chapter as well as the national Association.

In 2015, Mr. Zimmerman became one of the first 24 persons worldwide to earn the designation as a Certified Threat Manager through the Association of Threat Assessment Professionals.
